1st SUNDAY OF LENT

REPENT AND BELIEVE THE GOOD NEWS

Last Wednesday, Ash Wednesday, we began Lent with the ceremony of the distribution of ashes. One of the formulas used is, "Repent and believe in the Gospel". When we hear the word "repent" we probably think about being sorry for wrong things we have done. Acknowledging what we have done wrong is important. However, the Greek word in the original text, Metanoia, which is translated as "repent", is much broader. It is a call to be transformed. It is brought about by the power of the Holy Spirit at work in us. It is the fruit of the death and resurrection of Jesus which we are preparing to celebrate at Easter. This is the Good News, in which we are called to believe. Lent provides us with a time when we can make ourselves more open to that work of the Spirit.

There are three activities characteristic of Lent. These are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Many of us may feel there is something a bit unsatisfactory about our life of prayer. Lent is a time to try and give more quality time to prayer.

Fasting is part of many religious traditions. There is something about it which helps us focus more on God and less on our own immediate cravings. Traditionally people think about giving up something for Lent. This certainly has its place. We might ask ourselves if there is anything to which we are rather too attached. It may be food or drink or smoking. It may be the extent to which we use the internet or social media.

Finally, there is almsgiving. This makes us less attached to the material things we possess but above all it helps us to focus on those in need. In them we are called to recognise Christ himself. There are a variety of Lenten appeals. We will be having family fast day appeal for CAFOD.

All these things help us to respond to the call to be transformed, to "repent". In this way we prepare to celebrate the wonders of God's love and mercy at the end of Lent, as we remember the events of Holy Week and Easter.

Lenten Almsgiving

The Rwanda Group Trust, now under the patronage of Bishop Paul Swarbrick, is seeking to raise funds for the poorest of the poor in Rwanda. Serious flooding in some areas has destroyed houses, roads and crops and famine continues. There are many families, widows, orphans, poor children and sick people in Rwanda who need our help. Please help us to help them. £30 pays for a goat or a pig; £1.10 buys a kg of rice.

Our funds also help with medical costs, housing and school fees.

We have no paid employees or overheads.

Sister Teresa Dougan will be a 100 years old on Tuesday, 26th March.

A prayer for Lent

God of all wholeness, heal our hearts of all that prevents us responding to our sisters and brothers excluded by poverty and prevented from living a full and healthy life. This Lent, may we: implore justice through our prayer, stand in solidarity through our fasting, and reach out through our giving. Send your life-giving power to revive the weary, restore the broken and renew the face of the Earth. CAFOD LENT
